

Project Manager

Reports To: Head of Operations

Salary: Up to £50,000 DOE

Location: Nationwide, preferably South of England

The Opportunity: We are looking for a Project Manager to lead the delivery of generator and related power projects across the UK. This is a hands-on role for someone who can coordinate people, manage site activity, keep projects moving, and build strong relationships with customers and internal teams. You will play a key part in delivering safe, efficient and high-quality projects while supporting the continued growth of YorPower.

What You'll Be Doing

- Manage generator and related power projects from planning through to delivery.
- Act as the main point of contact for customers, site teams and internal departments.
- Attend site meetings, assess project requirements and help define the best delivery approach.
- Coordinate labour, materials, technical support and project updates to keep work on track.
- Ensure projects are delivered safely, on time, to specification and to a high standard of quality.
- Build strong working relationships and contribute to continuous improvement across project delivery.

Technical Involvement

- Support commissioning, retrofit and installation activity where required.
- Work closely with project support and engineering teams on drawings, technical information and delivery planning.
- Provide practical technical input to help resolve issues and keep projects progressing.

What We're Looking For

- Experience in project delivery, engineering support or a similar operational role.
- Strong organisational skills and the ability to manage multiple priorities.
- Good communication skills and a confident, professional approach with customers and colleagues.
- A strong focus on quality, safety and delivering a high standard of service.
- Experience in generator, power or electrical environments would be an advantage.

Why Join YorPower?

YorPower is a people-focused business with a strong reputation, a supportive culture and a real commitment to doing things well. We work hard to deliver great service for our customers and create an environment where our people can develop, contribute and feel part of the business.

As an Employee-Owned Trust, we believe in sharing success and building a culture where people feel involved, valued and connected to the future of the company.

We are proud of our strong employee retention, our focus on internal development, and the opportunities we create for people to grow within the business.

You'll also benefit from wellbeing support, access to an Employee Assistance Programme, and a positive team culture supported by regular social, recognition and charity activities.

Alongside formal business objectives, the company promotes team connection through social events, recognition activities and charity fundraising throughout the year.
